FINAL FOUR NOW LOOKS SETTLED

Belmont's hopes of upsetting the Southern Port-Hamilton team last Sunday blew away with the gale force wind as the Port team handed out a 14 goal thumping in the WAFA match at Davilak Oval.

After an even first quarter, Southern Port moved into top gear and cruised away from their opposition to win comfortably 17.20 to 4.12.

Belmont had first use of the breeze and kicked 3.6 in the opening term. However they could only manage one more goal for the rest of the match.

It was a miserable day for football, with heavy rain and strong winds. Without doubt the worst conditions were at Midland Oval, where top team Melville took on Midland. Melville coach Tony Micale described the conditions as the worst he has seen in 20 years of football. The entire ground was under water.

But that didn't stop Melville from scoring another big win and maintaining their unbeaten record.

Mosman Park had an even tussle with Swan Valley for three quarters before Mosman Park took control and broke away to score an easy 10 goal victory.

Swan Valley certainly don't lack anything in desperation or aggression, but they face yet another tough encounter today against Southern Port-Hamilton at Davilak Oval.

Southern Port coach Gary Greer has his team firing and there is a nice blend of skill and experience throughout the line-up.

Centreman Sam Maskos has been one of the most consistent players in the Wafa competition this season. As well as Maskos' mid field dominance, there is the sound defensive work of centre-half-back Kevin Pausin, the fine ruck-roving combination of Len Thorne and Ron Cox plus the goal scoring talents of half-forward Martin Rodriguez.

Swan Valley face an enormous task to beat Southern Port today, but they can rely on utility player Neil Sumich to continue his magnificent form of late, with solid support coming from defenders Mark Otie and John Caratozzolo.

Mosman Park coach Ian Earl feels that his team is still playing well below its capabilities, but he can expect to win against Midland at Midland Oval today.

Earl is having an excellent season, as a defender and ruck-rover, and centreman Barry Haydinger has been a solid contributor mid-field. Mosman Park also have the skill of full-forward David Harvey and half-back John Litterick has been a reliable defender.

Midland are still searching for their first win of the season, and its difficult seeing them pose too many problems for an improving Mosman Park.

The other Wafa match today is the clash between Belmont and Cockburn.

Belmont must have been very disappointed with their performance last week and they will have to rebound today and keep their slim hopes of making the final four this season alive.

But Cockburn have been going from strength to strength in recent weeks. They will come up fresh from a bye last week and with the talent of Paul Zuvella in the centre, Randall Prowse at centre-half-back, Lorenzo Fortini roving and young centre-half-forward Trevor Brickhill they should be too strong for Belmont.

Steve Busher, a late withdrawal from the Belmont team last week, is expected to play today and he will be looking for support from the inform Gordon Chadd and skillful half-forward John Dimmer.

COCKBURN HAPPY WITH THEIR IMPROVEMENT

Last fortnight all of our teams finished off their first round of football with winning games. The league side coasted to a win, the reserves side demolished the opposition by 220 points, and the colts team won an exciting game after Doug Searle goaled from 60 yards out.

Today we play Belmont and it appears that all our teams will play their toughest games in the first half of each round. It is essential that we start off the round with a win in all grades today.

The club welcomes back Paul Stigwood who has been training in the past few weeks, after a short absence from football. Paul's ability will be an asset to the club as our teams progress towards the finals. Paul's brother, Garry, has given great service to the club this year in the position of Team Manager for the league. Regardless of the weather conditions Garry is always out there, contributing to our own on field success.

Congratulations must go to Garry and his wife Janice who are now expecting the arrival of their second child.

One of our club's main sources of fund-raising, the Bingo, is now going through a very lean time due to falling attendances. The fall in attendance is not due to any reduction in the standard of the Bingo, but it is due to the increase in competition from other halls. All members are asked to support our Bingo by attending and encouraging their family and friends to attend. The Bingo is held for five week stretches, at Canning Highway, Bicton on Wednesday nights commencing at 8.00p.m. An added bonus of attending the Bingo is that Trevor O'Brien and Frank Beers, two of Cockburn's greatest footballers and clubmen, are always in attendance and they would welcome the company of present players and supporters.

Our club's outstanding player of the day in the games against Midland must surely have been reserves player Scott Prowse, who followed on from his fine form of the previous week, to make him best man on the ground two weeks in a row. Scott has been in the forefront of the reserve's best players all this season and he has been a player who has shown the rest of the side how to win the ball. This ultimately has resulted in the side lifting their performances to a level where they now are a real force in the competition.

"Three teams in the final four in 84".

SWAN VALLEY STILL HOPE TO IMPROVE

Well thats the end of the first round in terms of wins and losses and it hasn't been very successful. When one considers that 24 players are missing from our two Grand Final teams of last year that leaves a big hole to plug.

To the credit of the new and old players we have been working hard at correcting our performances on the field.

Last weeks results were not in our favour, but it was encouraging to see both teams fight it out to the end. Nicky Bruce and Kim Bracknell played very well in the reserves as did Neil Sumich, John Carrots- and Mick Otie in the league side.

A big thank you to the girls in the canteen last week. Best of luck to both teams today. We the supporters know you have the ability, it is just a matter of putting it together.

Mossies Set To Tie One On Next Saturday

Mosman Park have a bye on Sunday 10th June. On the Saturday 9th June the club will hold a cabaret. Its theme is a "Back To The 50's Night". It is on at the David Jones Pavillion and the cost is a very moderate $2.50 per head. Not only that but all drinks are at prices that won't make your eyes water. Jugs of beer at only $2.50 (no Misprint) and spirits are all 0.50¢ a ½ nip(Unbelievable isn't it). Add to that Door Prizes for the best dressed and you the recipe for a fab night. Not only ultra cheap to get in but even cheaper to get your snoot full. See you there.....

Best players from last weeks game against Swan Valley are:

Reserves.

Craig Russell, David Teague, Cris Strass.

LEAGUE.

John Litterick, Phil Walker, Barry Haydinger.

Umpires Corner Give The Umps A Go Mate!

I have asked all umpires, particularly the umpires taking part in the last game to go into the home clubs bar and enjoy a few drinks with players and members. However, I have noticed that some clubs aren't exactly going out of their way to make them welcome

I think in the best interests of all and the game the mixing of umpires, office bearers and players must only help the communication barrier. Could I suggest the President or Secretary of the club saying to the umpires after the game "See the barman, he'll buy you a couple of jugs". Good for public relations don't you think.
